THE PALMETTO

Edited by THE PALMETTO STAFF of 1964

RAYVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

RAYVILLE, LOUISIANA

DEDICATION

This edition of the Palmetto is dedicated in an attempt to honor the teenagers of today and the leaders of tomorrow. More than once the teenagers have been called juvenile delinquents because of the acts of a few immature people.

This annual singles out, not the bad points, but the good things that our young people of Rayville High School have accomplished. The honors, awards, recognitions, popular votes, hard work and fun of our students is what these pages contain.

So to you, the students of Rayville High, the annual staff proudly dedicates this edition of the 1964 Palmetto.

Many are involved in homecoming activities.

The Rayville High School Band participated in several activities during the year. We had All District tryouts, All State tryouts, a Christmas concert, the stock show parade, and festival. The spring concert was the main activity everyone looked forward to. We owe our progress to our week at band camp and to Mr. Hodge, who has worked hard for us as well as with us. All this explains why the Rayville band is the "pride of Rayville."
